“Baseball is a cherished experience in this country that brings families and communities together, and we are thrilled to continue our relationship with Diamond Baseball Holdings to help deepen this tradition with several more outstanding Minor League Baseball programs,” said Ken Gaber, President of OVG Hospitality. “This partnership reflects our commitment to bringing quality food, innovative processes, and unforgettable moments to venues across the country. We’re excited to keep hitting it out of the park with these DBH clubs and communities.”

With a focus on providing the ultimate fan experience, OVG Hospitality has worked to develop high-quality culinary operations at all of its DBH properties, accounting for fan favorites, regional classics and over-the-top items for specialty games and events. The deepened relationship with DBH marks commitment from the partners to set the tone for food and beverage across Minor League Baseball.

“Having had a front-row seat as OVG Hospitality has elevated the food and beverage experience at many of our clubs’ ballparks, we are excited to double down on our partnership with them,” said Rick Barakat, EVP of Business Development at DBH. “Their commitment to embracing local cuisine and meticulous attention to detail have empowered us to connect more deeply with our fans, and we’re thrilled for the next step in our partnership.”

To further improve the gameday routine and decrease transaction times at concession stands, OVG Hospitality has introduced new point-of-sale systems designed to streamline the ordering and payment process as the new standard at multiple DBH venues. The food and beverage partner also works closely with non-profit organizations in many team markets to supplement hourly employees on event days. These non-profit organizations volunteer at concession stands or portable kiosks and earn a percentage of sales for their organization. These innovative and community focused changes allow guests to feel good about their game day experience, spend less time in line and more time enjoying the action on the field.

Through the expansion of this partnership, OVG Hospitality is now the official food and beverage provider for 25 clubs and ballparks:
